President's Message

I would like to welcome everyone to the 156th Almonte Fair where our theme is Recognizing 100 Years of 4H in Ontario.

This year we would like to welcome Gable Bros. Midway. As always we offer a fun packed weekend with livestock shows, demolition derby and activities for the whole family, both in the hall and outside. The fair hall will be home to displays of flowers, vegetables, quilts, home crafts, food, youth work and much more.

I encourage you and your family to join us and participate throughout the fair. From the education barn to the midway – where there is something to see and do for everyone.

I would like to take this time to thank everyone who has participated in our fundraising activities for the restoration of this fine building that has stood true the test of time.

To the exhibitors, volunteers, directors, sponsors and committee members a Big Thank You. With out your support this fair cannot happen.

Please come and join us for a fun-filled weekend and be sure to meet local 4H members on the grounds.

James Purdy, President

The Ryan Brothers

Michael has been playing music more than 45 years at many different functions throughout the Ottawa Valley. He started on the drums with his parents Lois and Bill, playing local dances then started the band “Concession Twelve” in 1977. Asked brother Bernie to play drums, as Michael switched to the guitar playing private parties, and a wide variety of music and many benefit functions until 1982. During that time they were too young to play in the bars, which was fine by their parents!

Bernie and Michael met a few co-workers in 1990 and played similar Gigs for another six years. The group was called “Seconds Out”

With the last name Ryan, they haven’t forgotten their roots, and are extremely busy around the 17th of March “St. Patrick’s Day”. Very busy performing at the famous Douglas Tavern in Douglas, Ontario, and in Pakenham, their hometown, and throughout the Ottawa Valley, with Gail Gavan, who they work with frequently, at many corporate shows, fairs, and festivals, from the National Art Center in Ottawa, to the Royal York Hotel in Toronto.

In 2007 Michael, with cousin David Ryan, recorded a CD of Traditional Celtic and Maritime favorites’ which is played much at CJHR 98.7 FM Renfrew, Ontario.

They have shared the stage with Natalie MacMaster, Gene Watson, Pam Tillis, Sammy Kershaw, Lorrie Morgan, Marty Stuart, Whispering Bill Anderson, Stonewall Jackson, Tommy Makem, George Fox, Rich Little, Wayne Rostad, Charlie Major, Mike O’Reilly, Bobby Lalonde, Kelli Trotter, April Verch, and many other local performers.

Brad Munro & Marty McTiernan

Brad Munro and Marty McTiernan have been singing sweet harmonies together since high school. They started a band called Sundown, and for many years played all the top clubs in eastern Ontario. Surrounding themselves with great musicians over the years has always been a real source of pride for Brad and Marty, as well as complimenting their powerful vocal sound. Thirty years later, Brad and Marty still perform together as often as possible.

Privacy Act

The following quote is from the Privacy Commissioner of Canada regarding the new Privacy Act which was implemented January 1, 2003:

The fact sheet issued by the Privacy Commissioner of Canada points out that the presence of commercial activity is the most important consideration for non-profits. However, fundraising is not a commercial activity, nor is collecting membership fees, organizing club activities, compiling a list of members' names and addresses, or mailing out newsletters. While the act of asking for donations is not subject to the Act, charities and non-profits are still required to seek appropriate consent if selling, bartering, or leasing lists. These are considered to be commercial activities.

PLEASE NOTE

The North Lanark Agricultural Society does not sell, barter or lease any of the information we have on file regarding names, addresses etc. of all exhibitors at the annual agricultural fair, all members and all donors to the Society. NLAS reserves the right to publicly congratulate winners where appropriate and keep contact information of exhibitors on file for future fairs.

ALMONTE FAIR

EST. 1858

Exhibition Prize List

Rules & Regulations

Of The North Lanark Agricultural Society

1. Each exhibitor must be a member of the North Lanark Agricultural Society. 2015 membership is $5.00. New Homecraft Exhibitors will not pay membership fee for the current year. The Society reserves the right to refuse any entry or membership. All entries must be in the hands of the Secretary no later than 10:00pm on the Thursday immediately preceding the fair, or as specified in each class.
2. When making settlement, $5.00 membership will be retained for the following year from any winnings of $5.00 or more. Entry fees of 15% will be deducted from remaining prize money. Children exhibiting in Class 7 (Children's Department) will not pay membership or entry fees. Children exhibiting in any other classes will pay 15% entry fee on winnings of $5.00 and over.
3. To be eligible for competition, whether single or in groups (except where otherwise specified), all animals and articles exhibited must be the property of the exhibitor and must be owned by the exhibitor for at least 15 days at time of making entry.
4. All applications for entries must be made on the printed forms supplied by the society, completed with all requested information and signed by the intending exhibitor. If names and addresses are not complete and legible, prize money will not be mailed.
5. No exhibit may be removed from the hall or grounds during the fair, except on written orders of the president or the chairperson of the committee in charge.
6. No prize ribbons or cards may be displayed in connection with exhibits before judging is complete.
7. Every exhibit entered for competition must remain in the class in which it is entered throughout the fair, except where otherwise provided for in the prize book.
8. All grains, roots, fruits, vegetables and dairy products must be grown, raised or manufactured by the exhibitor during the current year.
9. Any person who shall impose or attempt to impose by false representation or in any other way, in order to obtain a premium or any other advantage, upon complaint being made before the directors or a quorum thereof, and fully substantiated, shall be deprived of all prizes awarded to him, her or them, at the exhibition, and any prize money reverts to the society.

10. Exhibitors may be required by the directors to make a statutory declaration that the articles exhibited by them are exhibited in accordance with the rules and regulations of the society, and if the exhibitor refuses to make such a declaration, all premiums awarded to him, her or them, shall be forfeited.
11. Protests must be made in writing and must give definitely and concisely the grounds of protest. All protests must be made before 6:00 pm on the day the award was made, after which no protest will on any account, be received. Any party making a protest must deposit with the treasurer the sum of $50.00 as a guarantee of good faith, which will not be returned to him/her upon his/her proving the protest; otherwise it will be retained by the society. The directors will decide in all such cases, in a timely fashion, and the decision shall be final.
12. Firms and co-partnerships entering exhibits for competition must be in existence for one month at time of making entry and, in all cases, must be the property of the firm or partnership. Affidavits of age of firms may be required by the committee.
13. The society will take every possible precaution under the circumstances to ensure the safety of articles sent to the exhibition, yet they wish it to be “distinctly understood” that the owners themselves must take the risk of exhibiting them, and should any article be lost or stolen, the directors will give all the assistance in their power toward recovering same, but will not make any payment for the value thereof. The society will not be liable for any loss to an exhibitor occasioned by fire, accident, condition of structure or otherwise, or the negligence of other exhibitors or officials of the society.
14. Each exhibitor will be solely responsible for any loss, injury or damage occasioned by or arising from any animal or article exhibited by him/her and shall indemnify the society of any losses.
15. The board of directors reserves the right to interpret any rule or regulation and their decision shall be final. Should any dispute or question arise not provided for in the Rules and Regulations, the decision of the board of directors shall be final.
16. Non-compliance with any rules of the society on the part of the exhibitor, or his employees, shall incur the forfeiture of all privileges and premiums.

17. If receipts are insufficient to meet the prize list in full, the prizes will be paid prorated as funds permit.

Passes

18. No member passes will be issued. Passes will be issued for volunteers only and any other as deemed appropriate by the Board of Directors. Anyone entering the grounds during the annual exhibition must have a pass to enter or must pay the entrance fee at the gate. Anyone refusing to pay the entrance fee will not be permitted access to the grounds.
19. Policy for Livestock Exhibitors
All entries need to be submitted to the Secretary by July 2.
Gate Admission Regulations: Livestock truck and driver – FREE. All others pay normal admission. Livestock competition exhibitors will be mailed their passes when entry forms are received in the office by July 2. As has been the policy of the fair, Livestock truck and driver will be admitted to the fair FREE. All others must have a pass or pay. If anyone requires more passes, they must contact the committee chair.

Judging

20. A judge shall not award two first place awards, or two second place awards, etc in any section of any class.
21. No person shall act as judge for awarding premiums in a class that he/she is a competitor.
22. Any person who shall attempt to interfere with the judges, while in the discharge of their duties, or use any contemptuous or abusive language to any judge, in consequence of any award made by him, shall forfeit his or her right to any premium to which he/she might otherwise be entitled, and judges are requested to report any such instances.
23. In the absence of any competition in any section or if the stock or article exhibited be of an inferior quality, the judge(s) will award only such premium as they consider the stock or articles merits. They will exercise their discretion as to whether they will award the first, second or any premium.
24. In addition to the stated premiums offered for articles listed in the prizebook, the judge shall have power to award discretionary premiums for such animals or articles not listed, as they may consider worthy. The judge may also distinguish such articles as they consider worthy of notice, but which have not received prizes, with the words “commended or highly commended” but shall not entitle the owner to any premium.

25. Judges of Homecraft work are authorized to disqualify all soiled, defaced or old work and are instructed to award the prizes to new and up to date work only.
26. All judges' decisions will be final.
27. Judging for Homecraft exhibitors starts at 8:30am on the Friday morning of the fair and as a result, the hall will be closed while judging is in progress.
28. All judges must be experienced in the class they are judging and may not be members of the Board of Directors.

Homecraft

29. The main exhibit hall will be open from 3:00pm to 10:00pm on the Thursday immediately preceding the fair and all exhibits must be in the main hall by 10:00pm that day. All exhibits must be removed between 4:00pm and 5:00pm on the Sunday of the fair weekend. NLAS will not be responsible for items not removed on Sunday.
30. One exhibit cannot be entered in more than one section. No exhibitor shall be allowed to make more than one entry in any one section of a class. Exhibits must be produced by the exhibitor or a member of their household. Quantities specified must be shown.

Livestock

31. Entries of purebred livestock must be registered by name, number, and date of birth, except in the cases of animals under one year of age; in such cases the name and number of the sire and dam must be given, and the name and number of the sire must be given in all cases of grade animals.
32. NLAS reserves the right to reject or eliminate any entry or exhibit. Entries for purebred livestock will be accepted only on the understanding that the animals are registered with the recognized breeding association in the name of the exhibitor by the date of closing entries. Each exhibitor must have on hand at the time of the exhibition, the certificates which may be examined for identification purposes by the committee members.
33. Proof of liability insurance for all show animals must be provided with your entry forms. This proof may be a photocopy of your policy or a letter from your insurer. If proof is not provided, the animals in question will be required to be taken from the property.
34. Bulls must have rings in their noses or be otherwise properly secured to prevent accidents. All animals must be shown in the ring as required by the directors and judges. Animals must be shown in parade; otherwise money will not be paid. Owners or attendants must be prepared to bring animals into the ring when called for, or forfeit claim to any premiums awarded to them.

35. No animal will be allowed to compete for more than a single premium, except for specials, stake classes and team classes.
36. No horse shall receive a premium which the judge considers to be possessed of hereditary unsoundness.

ALMONTE FAIR FAMILY SPECIAL

Sponsored by John Stewart, Pakenham,
In memory of Elsa & Art Stewart

- 6) Animals can be shown on a signed transfer of ownership which will be submitted immediately following the show by the Holstein Canada Fieldman

SPECIAL NOTE: No animal entered in any of the Dairy Show Classes will be permitted on the grounds prior to 6:00 a.m. on the day before the show.

CODE OF ETHICS FOR DAIRY CATTLE EXHIBITORS

PART 1: The following practices and procedures are considered unacceptable and defined as being unethical in the show ring of registered dairy cattle.

- 1) Misrepresenting the age of an animal for the class in which it is being shown.
- 2) Balancing the udder by means other than by leaving naturally produced milk in any or all quarters, or roping udders and the use of objects to physically improve definition of the median suspensory ligament.
- 3) Treating or massaging any part of the animal’s body, particularly the udder, internally or externally, with an irritant, counter-irritant, or other substances to temporarily improve conformation or produce unnatural animation.
- 4) Minimizing the effects of crampiness or lameness by feeding or injecting drugs.
- 5) Surgery of any kind performed to change the natural contour or appearance of the animal’s body, hide or hair. Not included is the removal of warts, teats, and horns, clipping and dressing of hair and trimming of hooves.
- 6) Insertion of foreign material under the skin.
- 7) Criticizing or interfering with the judge, show management or other exhibitors while in the show ring, or other conduct detrimental to the breed show.
- 8) Filling an animal’s rumen unnaturally with liquid (tubing).
- 9) Administering epidural anaesthesia (blocking tails), or applying any irritant, either externally or internally to the perineal area.

PART II:

- 1) The provisions of this part apply to entries of a breed regulated by a breed association which has adopted this part.
- 2) No exhibitor and no agent, employee or other person acting on behalf of an exhibitor, shall have in his or her possession or control:
 - (a) any hypodermic syringe, needle or other device;
 - (b) swabs, cloths or other material, or
 - (c) any medicine, preparation or substances; whether in liquid or any other form intended for use in contravention of the Code of Ethics.
- 3) In addition to the requirements of the General Rules & Regulations, all entries and the personal property of all exhibitors, their servants and agents and persons acting on behalf of the exhibitors, are subject to inspection at all times by inspectors authorized by the General Manager. All such persons shall co-operate with the inspectors and shall provide all such information in connection with inspections, and shall provide, if so requested, samples of urine and blood suitable for analysis. They shall also remove any udder supports, blankets or other objects limiting the ability of the inspector to undertake a thorough inspection of the animals. In particular, the inspectors shall be informed of the nature of any medicine, treatment or substance administered to any entry and the reasons therefore. Inspections under this paragraph may be carried out at any time while the animal is at the show and elsewhere in the period ending 30 days after the termination of the show between the hours of 6:00 a.m. and 8:00 p.m.

4) Any inspector may at any time require the delivery to him of any hypodermic syringe, needle or other device, swabs, cloths or other material; or samples of any medicine, preparation or substance whether in liquid or other form in the possession or control of the exhibitor, his servants, agents, or persons acting on behalf of the exhibitor, for the purposes of laboratory analysis.

5) (a) Subject to the provisions of sub-paragraph (b), the following entries are disqualified and shall not participate further in the Fair in which an entry is disqualified:

(1) Any animal determined by an inspector (who is also a veterinarian) to have any udder manifesting any of the following: localized swelling, oedema, erythema, sensitivity, reddening, firmness, warmth or exfoliation of the skin, but excluding general oedema associated with parturition or mastitis, or a sore in the area where the large blood vessels enter the udder.

(2) Any animal entered by an exhibitor who, or whose servants, agents or servants, persons acting on behalf of the exhibitor, fails to co-operate in the inspections provided for under paragraphs 3 or 4.

(b) The inspector's determination pursuant to sub-paragraph (a) (1) is subject to an appeal by the exhibitor to the appeal committee appointed by the show for the purpose. Any such appeal must be made by notice in writing delivered to the show management within one hour of notification of the inspector's determination.

6) No entry shall be removed from the Fair buildings prior to being exhibited, for any purpose, except upon the express permission of the General Manager and under supervision while absent from permission shall be disqualified.

PART III:

All exhibitors and their filters, agents or other representatives agree to abide by the following procedures:

1) Exhibitors, agents, employees or other person acting on behalf of an exhibitor, shall deliver to an inspector upon request any hypodermic syringe, needle or other device, swabs, cloths or other material, or samples of any medicine, preparation or substance, whether in liquid or other form, for the purposes of laboratory analysis.

2) All entries and personal property of the exhibitors, their servants and agents and persons acting on behalf of exhibitors, are subject to inspection by inspectors authorized by a show. All such persons shall co-operate with the inspectors and shall provide all such information in connection with such inspections and shall provide access to the animal and all information reasonably required by inspectors in connection with such inspections and shall provide, if so requested, samples of urine, milk, blood, or any other body fluids suitable for analysis.

3) Exhibitors shall remove any udder supports, blankets or other objects limiting the ability of the inspector to undertake a thorough inspection.

4) The exhibitor agrees to act at all times in accordance with the Rules and Regulations for Showing and the Standard procedures, and will accept any final decision made thereunder. In keeping with the basic philosophy of the Canadian Dairy Breeds, ethics are an individual responsibility. However it should be understood that violators are subject to the disciplinary provisions of their Breed Association's Rules & Regulations.
